Mitia Oberti

PhD Candidate in Economics, CREST, Institut Polytechnique de Paris mitia.oberti@ensae.fr · mitiaobt.github.io

Research interests

Labor economics, public policy evaluation and international migration, with a focus on how information frictions shape job search, employer hiring and labor market matching.

Education

2024 – present Ph.D., Economics, CREST, Institut Polytechnique de Paris
Supervisors: B. Crépon and R. Rathelot

2021 – 2022 M.Sc., Quantitative Economics, ENSAE Paris
magna cum laude

2018 – 2021 M.Res., International Economics, Université Paris-Dauphine summa cum laude, valedictorian

2015 – 2018 B.A., Applied Economics, Université Paris-Dauphine
Exchange semester at Baruch College, CUNY, New York (Spring 2018)

Work in progress

Providing Job Seekers with Labor Market Information with B. Crépon, D. Glover, M. Hoffmann, E. Perennes and B. Petrongolo

The Role of Information about Worker Skills in Hiring Decisions with M. Brouard and R. Rathelot

Decomposing the Ethnic Job Finding Gap: Evidence from Application and Hiring Decisions

Policy writing

2024 "L'immigration : un atout pour le dynamisme économique" (in French)
Published in La vie des idées · Available here

Grants and awards

2024 – 2027 Full Ph.D. scholarship, France Travail (French public employment agency)

2022 Best research internship thesis award, ENSAE Paris

Presentations

2026 INASHI ERC Workshop (CREST and France Travail)

2025 Machine Learning in Economics Summer Institute (University of Chicago Booth School of Business); INASHI ERC Workshop (CREST and France Travail); PhD Workshop (CREST)

Teaching

2024 – 2025 Econometrics I, graduate, TA, ENSAE Paris

2022 – 2025 Introduction to Macroeconomics, undergraduate, TA, ENSAE Paris

2024 Dissertation in Descriptive Economics, undergraduate, supervisor, ENSAE Paris

Previous experience

2022 – 2024	Research Assistant, CREST, Institut Polytechnique de Paris to B. Crépon and R. Rathelot
2020	Research Analyst, OECD, Paris
2019 – 2020	Research Assistant, French Ministry of Education & Sciences Po, Paris

Skills

Languages: French (native), English (fluent), Italian, Russian and Spanish (basic) Programming: R, Python, SQL, Stata, Qualtrics, LaTeX, ArcGIS/QGIS, EViews, Dataiku

Last updated: November 6, 2026